

BINGO del Verano (6)

 Read a Spanish children's book. (links on website or check one out at the library) _____	 Teach a family member how to conjugate the verbs ser or tener. (Have them sign here.) _____	 Watch a Spanish children's video. (links on the website) _____
 Write or message a friend from your class in Spanish. Ask questions using vocabulary that you have learned. (Bring in your letters or screenshot.)	 Print an inspirational quote in Spanish to bring to class (look for “frase motivacional” on Google or Pinterest with a parent’s permission).	 Make a list of 10 things you are thankful for (using Spanish vocabulary that you have learned).
 Learn a Spanish Tongue Twister (see Trabalenguas on the back of this page or find your own) _____	 Choose Spanish as your language at the grocery store self-checkout or change the language on your iPod/iPhone to Spanish for a day.	 What is the feathered serpent of Chichén Itzá? (links on the website) _____

Don't forget the Spanish you learned this year - play Summer Bingo.
 Complete 6 squares and earn 100 Duolingo points.

Bring in your Bingo card with:

1. the items you collected
2.  or write what you did in the square
3. + add in your 100 Duolingo points...
(grade 6 first checkpoint or higher, grade 7-8 second checkpoint or higher)

...and be ready for Spanish class next fall.

Mi nombre es: _____

Clase: _____

Trabalenguas (Tongue Twisters)

En tres tristes trastos de trigo,
tres tristes tigres comían trigo.
Comían trigo, tres tristes tigres,
en tres tristes trastos de trigo.

Juan tuvo un tubo,
y el tubo que tuvo se le rompio,
y para recuperar el tubo que tuvo,
tuvo que comprar un tubo
igual al tubo que tuvo.

Un burro comía berros y el perro se los robó,
el burro lanzó un rebuzno, y el perro al barro cayó.