

Tener y Ser

“Tener” means _____.

Conjugate “tener” all the way through.

yo _____

tú _____

él / ella / usted _____

nosotros / nosotras _____

vosotros / vosotras _____

ellos / ellas / ustedes _____

“Ser” means _____.

Conjugate “ser” all the way through.

yo _____

tú _____

él / ella / usted _____

nosotros / nosotras _____

vosotros / vosotras _____

ellos / ellas / ustedes _____

We have learned two verbs in Spanish - ser (chapter 1) and tener. For now, do not use them in the same sentence. Practice the meaning of each verb. Don't forget the indefinite articles we learned in chapter 1 (a, an, some - un, una, unos, unas). Write each sentence choosing between the verbs ser and tener and the correct indefinite article.

1. I have a sister. _____
2. I am a sister. _____
3. He has a brother. _____
4. He is a brother. _____
5. They have a father. _____
6. They are some fathers. _____
7. We have a teacher. _____
8. We are some teachers. _____
9. You have a student. _____
10. You are a student. _____